The main purpose of this book is to jointly combine efforts and contributions towards the betterment of Pakatan Rakyat to win in the central and state in the 13th General Election. The author extremely confident that if the process of the 13th General Election runs in a fair and transparent manner, the victory will favor Pakatan Rakyat. However, if the 13th General Election are dirty, unfair and not transparent, then the victory will favor Barisan Nasional later is an unscrupulous, fraudulent and undemocratic victory. Even so, the author hopes and prays that people will stick with Pakatan Rakyat. They will remain committed in selecting Pakatan Rakyat candidates for the 13th General Election that is so crucial for the future of Malaysian race, religion and their beloved homeland. The author hopes that God will always bless Pakatan Rakyat struggle - struggle towards the establishment of a new central government, fair, clean and democratic.
